Scouts Australia (SA Branch) has engaged HDQ Consulting to provide their expertise on a number of projects to allow Scouts SA to achieve as a non profit organisation succeed with its areas of focus.

Project management of new systems being implemented have been critical to business operations and the work provided by HDQ has assisted greatly in achieving these outcomes.

HDQ was also engaged to provide a cyber security report to measure our systems and processes against ISO27001. This report has provided the organisation with an important platform of work to increase our cyber security awareness and practices.

HDQ has provided Scouts SA with a range of options for our business operations across multiple sites.

I have no hesitation in recommending the professional work and expertise of HDQ Consulting as a technology consultant.
